Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival

Arrive and check in to the hotel. Traditional Ligurian dinner at the little Osteria Il Lupo which was once an ancient bakery. Overnight

Day 2: The Poets Gulf: Portovenere, Lerici

Departure for Portovenere, Stroll around the wonderful historical centre of the village with its multi-coloured houses and medieval streets that evoke unique emotions and smells, Free time to visit the streets of the old centre and wander around the little craft shops or have a coffee or ice cream at the Bar Lamia in the Calata Doria. Lunch in the Antica Osteria del Carugio, a fishermen's hostelry that has existed for over 100 years, where the traditional Ligurian menu is prepared daily by Signora Maria.

In the afternoon you will have free time to visit the old town centre of Lerici with its brightly coloured houses and lively fishing village, after that we head on to Monte Caprione and the La Rosa Canina country farmhouse, which is hidden in the thick Ligurian woods, to be welcomed by Marco among the giant bay trees. Visit the estate and taste some typical homemade Ligurian fare, such as the panizza frita (focaccia bread prepared with cheese from the dairy cooperative at Val di Vara). Overnight.
